

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST CONGREGATION OF PETOSKEY

NEWSLETTER - February/March 2019

Well . . . old man winter prevented us from having our scheduled board meeting in February so we will have to combine a couple of months for this newsletter.

Did you come to the Jim Scott concert last month? He performed a special Pete Seeger songfest at the Chapel and those of us that attended gave him two thumbs up. We had a nice crowd for a cold winter's night. Jim is a life-long UU and he's interested in coming back again the next time he's passing through. We hope it will be soon.

We are happy to report that we will have a representative at the upcoming UU Regional Assembly for the Midwest Region. Connie Baker has kindly volunteered to represent us at this assembly in April in St. Louis. Thanks Connie! We look forward to hearing about the assembly when you return.

There are some interesting services and social gatherings coming up. Mary Stewart Adams will speak to us again on March 17th. This time she will tell us about her interpretation of the stars and how they relate to the spring equinox. Yes, we can talk about spring time now! Mark your calendars for March 31st when we will have a 5th Sunday social event at Filmore's Restaurant in Petoskey. We have the back room reserved at 11:30 am for brunch. And we can always be looking forward to Marla's Poetry Sunday on April 7th. Time to start practicing your poetry memorizations and recitations. Will you share your favorite poem with us? I hope so.

There is some good news brewing in the programming area, and I will just say for now that we have been invigorated with some good energy and hope we can continue to carry on our good programming and even step it up a notch. Stay tuned for more details on this.

I will leave you with a spring time quote from Robin Williams,

Put your party attitude on, enjoy the sunshine as it comes back to us, and see you in church!

Sincerely, Kim Nowack
