

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST CONGREGATION OF PETOSKEY

NEWSLETTER - August, 2017

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 3 SERVICE at WILDWOOD

Bring a chair and your dog, cat, gerbil, cockatiel, turtle or whatever pet you have to the Pet Blessing/Pet Remembrance service at our Wildwood property at 11 am. You may choose to bring a photo or memento instead. Our own Larry Dyer will provide the music. There will be no food to tempt our little friends. If it rains the service will be cancelled.

Directions to 10043 Wildwood: Take Mitchell St. about 7.5 miles east to Wildwood Rd. and make a slight left turn. Continue for 0.9 miles. The property will be on your left. A new development will be on your right.

PROGRAM COMMITTEE MEETING will follow the September 3 service at the Noggin Room.

BOARD MEETING will be held after the September 10 service.

OUTREACH: The Board requests your suggestions for a local charity as the recipient of our second quarter charitable donations. Contact Kim Nowack or any board member before 9-10-17.

SERVICE and FUN PROJECT: The next M-DOT Adopt-a-Highway pick-up will be on Sunday, September 24. Meet in the Leg's Inn parking lot at 10 am in Cross Village. Lunch will follow at the Old World Cafe. All materials will be provided. Kim Nowack is the contact person.

BOOK DISCUSSION GROUP: The next gathering will be on Sunday, October 22 at 1:30 in the Petoskey Library 2nd floor conference room. The book selection is The Moral Arc: How Science Makes Us Better People by Michael Shermer. It is a fascinating but long book so, if desired, it may be discussed over two gatherings. All are welcome. Contact Pat Hartlep for information.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: The shed on the Wildwood property is in need of a clean-out and your help would be greatly appreciated. Contact Marla Houghteling if you are interested.
